

Team Leaders

- Committed to maintaining your own godliness and growth as a Christian through regular prayer and bible reading
- Regularly gathering with our church family and attending midweek group
- Committed to sharing and implementing our church's vision
- Committed to praying regularly for: your group of children and leaders
- Responsible for the management of leaders and young leaders in your group
- Oversee administrative matters for your group (see below for more details)
- Committed to training and supporting those young leaders you mentor; meeting regularly (if applicable)
- Ensure and maintain the management and discipline of children
- Responsible for keeping your room tidy after the lesson (all equipment, bibles, table and chairs to be put away)
- Responsible for the maintenance of the register and communicating new additions to the children's worker
- Committed to preparing each lesson properly, engaging your own heart before you teach others
- Committed to faithfully teaching God's word
- Committed to engaging with parents to support them and build relationships
- Responsible for welcoming and introducing yourself to new parents
- Arrive no later than 15 minutes before the lesson

Administration roles...

- Responsible for organising the teaching rota, finding cover when needed
- Responsible for emailing the team lesson plans and responsibilities by Friday
- Responsible for leading the team – go through plan and pray before lesson
- Communicate changes or any other relevant information to the team

Leaders

- Committed to maintaining your own godliness and growth as a Christian through regular prayer and bible reading
- Regularly gathering with our church family and attending midweek group
- Committed to sharing and implementing our church's vision
- Committed to praying regularly for: your group of children and leaders
- Committed to training and supporting those young leaders you mentor; meeting regularly (if applicable)
- Ensure and maintain the management and discipline of children
- Responsible for keeping your room tidy after the lesson (all equipment, bibles, table and chairs to be put away)
- Committed to preparing each lesson properly, engaging your own heart before you teach others
- Committed to faithfully teaching God's word
- Responsible for reading through the lesson plan and passage before lessons
- Responsible for emailing the team teaching plans when leading
- Responsible for emailing team leader dates of availability and any sudden changes to these
- Committed to engaging with parents to support them and build relationships
- Arrive no later than 15 minutes before the lesson

Young Leaders

- Committed to maintaining your own godliness and growth as a Christian through regular prayer and bible reading
- Regularly gathering with our church family and attending youth group
- Committed to sharing and implementing our church's vision
- Committed to praying regularly for your group of children
- Assist with the management and discipline of children
- Responsible for keeping your room tidy after the lesson (all equipment, bibles, table and chairs to be put away)
- Responsible for reading through the lesson plan and passage before lessons
- Committed to preparing each lesson properly, planning games beforehand and engaging your own heart before you teach others
- Responsible for assisting with resources before the lesson
- Committed to faithfully teaching God's word
- Responsible for emailing team leader dates of availability and any sudden changes to these
- Committed to engaging with parents to build relationships
- Responsible for maintaining the children's church venue after lessons
- Arrive no later than 15 minutes before the lesson