

You will need...

- A helper
- Chair
- Bright light

The story

Story	Actions
There was once a very mean man called Saul.
He did not like anyone who loved Jesus.
He wanted to catch them and put them in jail.	Grab an imaginary person with a hand
He travelled near and far to find them	Stretch and grab to the left. Stretch and grab to the right
One day, while he was on his way, a bright light suddenly flashed from the sky.	Helper to step up onto a chair next to you and turn on a bright light
It shone all around Saul. Saul fell to his knees, afraid. Saul closed his eyes.	Fall onto knees. Close your own eyes.
A voice called...	Helper with light says, "Saul, Saul, why are you doing these mean things?"
"Who are you?"

	Helper says, "I am Jesus. Now get up and go to the city. There you will find out what to do." Then turn off light
Saul got up. But when he opened his eyes, he could not see.	Open eyes and put hands out in front of you as if in blindness.
His friends had to lead him to the city.	Walk on the spot with hands in front.
Jesus sent a man to help Saul see.	Suddenly see things. Wave to children. Look pleased.
From that day on, Saul was different. He stopped hurting people. He stopped being mean.
He even changed his name so everyone would know he had changed.
He was now called "Paul."
Because when you get to know Jesus, you can't be mean any longer. No one stays the same after meeting Jesus
Because Jesus cares... even for people who hate him.
	Sing: "God's love is the best love!"

Top Tips

- Everything needs to be said with plenty of intonation, life, interest and volume to keep toddlers interested. It will sound odd!