The story

Story	Actions
We are learning every week that God cares. Today we're going to hear a story Jesus told to show how much God cares for us.
In the story Jesus told there were two people... A grumpy old man A lonely old woman	put on bald wig- put this on every time old man speaks put on old woman wig- put this on every time old woman speaks
One day the old woman went to the grumpy old man and knocked on his door. Knock, knock, knock She said, "Please sir, I'm having a tea party and I need help. Please will you come and help me"
Old man replied, [pause] "No" and shut the door.
The next week, the old woman came and asked the same thing... [repeat the scenario]
This kept happening. The old woman never stopped asking the grumpy old man
So one day the old woman came back, "Please sir, I'm having a tea party and I need help. Please will you come and help me"

The grumpy old man said, "Now old woman, I want you to know that I am going to help you with your tea party. I am not helping you because I like you. I am not helping you because I am kind. I am helping you because you just keep on asking. You won't leave me alone, so I will help you".

Pick up children's tea pot and plate

Jesus explained that if a grumpy old man will help someone who keeps on asking, imagine how God wants to help us. God cares for us. He is waiting for us to ask him for something. He wants to give us good things. That is how much he cares for us.
